

Second WHO/UNICEF Consultation on the Formulation of Post-2015 Global WASH Goals, Targets and Indicators
The Hague, The Netherlands,
3- 5 December 2012

Agenda and approved programme of work

Proposed agenda

1. Opening of the Consultation, approval of the agenda
2. Overview of the UN post-2015 Development Agenda
3. Progress in the implementation of the recommendations from the first Consultation
4. Consolidated proposal for post-2015 WASH targets and indicators
5. Review of water quality and measurability, other elements of the evidence base
6. Options for the architecture of a future global monitoring system
7. Country outreach and monitoring capacity development
8. The UN Development Agenda: effective liaison and mainstreaming post-2015 WASH targets and indicators into the political process
9. Conclusions and recommendations
10. Closure of the Consultation

Monday 3 December

08:00 – 09:00 Registration

Morning sessions 09:00-12:30

09:00 – 10:00 Formal opening

09:00 Welcome speeches and opening statement

(Master of ceremonies: Dick van Ginhoven)

Welcome by WHO (Robert Bos, WHO)

Welcome by UNICEF (Tessa Wardlaw, UNICEF)

Welcome by UN-Water (UN-Water Vice-Chair Bert Diphooorn)

Welcome by the hosting country (Rob Swartbol, Director-General International Development Cooperation, Ministry of Foreign Trade and Development Cooperation)

09:30 Opening statement by HRH Prince Willem-Alexander, Chair of UNSGAB

09:45 Objectives and expected outputs of the consultation; materials in the folders
Robert Bos, WHO

10:00 – 10:45 Session 1: Setting the stage

(Chair: Sanjay Wijesekera, UNICEF)

10:00 The UN-led process for formulating the Global Post-2015 Development Agenda

Nicole Igloi, UNDP

Q&A

10:45 An update on the general integration of human rights in the SDGs

Jyoti Sanghera, OHCHR

Q&A

10:45 – 11:15 Refreshments

11:15 – 12:30 Session 2: Update on progress since Berlin; the consolidated proposal

11:15 How the agreed Berlin roadmap was implemented: the process.

Guy Hutton WHO/UNICEF JMP

11:25 The consolidated proposal of post 2015 WASH targets and indicators

Clarissa Brocklehurst

11:45 Panel session: First general Panel presentations and dialogue with the audience
Panel members: Working Group Chairs (Tom Slaymaker (WaterAid), Eddy Perez (World Bank/WSP), Merri Weinger (USAID) and Catarina de Albuquerque (UN Special Rapporteur HRTWS) and JMP post-2015 Coordinator Guy Hutton

Rapid introduction of key issues by each Chair (3 minutes each).

Facilitator: Darren Saywell, PLAN-USA

12:30 Lunch

Afternoon session 14:00 – 17:30

14:00 – 17:30 Session 2: Update on progress since Berlin; the consolidated proposal (continued)

14:00 Panel session: Second general panel dialogue with the audience: focus on the four topics
Panel members: Working Group Chairs (Tom Slaymaker (WaterAid), Eddy Perez (World Bank/WSP), Merri Weinger (USAID) and Catarina de Albuquerque (UN Special Rapporteur HRTWS) and JMP post-2015 Coordinator Guy Hutton

Facilitator: Darren Saywell, PLAN-USA

Possible lead subjects:

- Are the proposed targets and indicators, in the context of plausible goals, relevant, technically sound and politically acceptable?

- Are key aspects missing in the proposed targets and indicators?
- Are the principles of the HRSWS, in particular equality and non-discrimination adequately reflected in the targets and indicators?

14:45 Measurability of the proposed targets and indicators

(Chair: Tessa Wardlaw, UNICEF)

- Follow-up and research questions originating from the measurability meeting
Rolf Luyendijk, UNICEF
- Monitoring water quality at global level

Jamie Bartram, UNC

Q&A and discussions

Facilitator: Darren Saywell

15:30 Refreshments

16:00 Plenary discussions on the further dimensions: knowledge gaps, piloting opportunities, research needs in support of the proposed targets and indicators

Facilitator: Darren Saywell

17:30 End of day 1 sessions

18:00 Reception offered by WHO and UNICEF (De Glazen Zaal, by invitation)

Tuesday 4 December

Morning session 08:30-12:30

(Chair: Dick van Ginhoven)

08:30 Recapitulation day 1.

Guy Hutton, WHO/UNICEF JMP
Robert Bos, WHO

08:45 – 10:00 Session 2: Update on progress since Berlin; the consolidated proposal (continued)

08:45 Panel session: Panel discussion and dialogue with the audience: relevance and feasibility of proposed targets and indicators from different perspectives.

Six panel members with a range of backgrounds: Federico Basañes (AIDB), Nelson Gomonda (WaterAid), Alex McPhail (World Bank), Leveke Neuman (BMZ), Suree Wongpiyachong (Thailand)

Facilitated by Paul van Koppen

09:45 Conclusions from the three Panel sessions

Gérard Payen, UNSGAB
David Bradley, LSHTM/Oxford

Consensus statement on the proposed targets and indicators with possible amendments emerging from the discussions, as a basis for further action.

10:30 Refreshments

11:00 – 12:00 Session 3: The Global WASH Monitoring Landscape

11:00 An overview of the current global WASH monitoring landscape and SWA partnership perspectives

Clarissa Brocklehurst
with inputs from GLAAS (Bruce Gordon), WSP (Jae So) and SWA (Darren Saywell),

11:00 Plenary Q&A and discussion

Facilitated by: Paul van Koppen

12:00 – 12:30 Session 4: Global and local dimensions; reaching out to countries and civil society

12:00 Country outreach under the UN-led process for formulating the post-2015 development agenda

Nicole Igloi, UNDP

Q&A

12:30 Lunch

Afternoon sessions 14:00 – 17:30

14:00 – 15:00 Session 4: Global and local dimensions; reaching out to countries and civil society (continued)

14:00 Panel session: Strategic perspectives in the broader post 2015 context. A dialogue on strategic issues related to post-2015 monitoring

Panel members: Jamie Bartram (UNC), Ger Bergkamp (IWA), Margaret Catley-Carlson (UNSGAB), Nicole Igloi (UNDP), Gérard Payen (UNSGAB) and Peter Ryan (WSA)

- How important is it to engage the private sector in the debate on post-2015 WASH targets and indicators?
- Which national level entities can be of most influence to ensure that governments take a global WASH target to the UN- General Assembly?
- How important is it to engage young people in the debate on the post-2015 WASH targets and indicators?

Facilitator: Paul van Koppen

14:45 Group work on options and opportunities outreach to UN Member States and civil society.

- Generate practical ideas to involve both governments and partner organizations in the South in the next phase in global consultation
- Options for a role of civil society in taking the outcome of the JMP Post-2015 process to the UNGA
- What criteria apply to decide the level at which targets and indicators apply?

15:30 – 16:00 Refreshments

16:00 Groups report back, followed by plenary discussion on issues related to outreach to countries and civil society, and what is needed to achieve it.

Facilitator: Paul van Koppen

17:00 Conclusions from this session

17:30 End of day 2 sessions

19:00 Dinner offered by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands (by invitation only; venue and possible transport arrangements to be confirmed).

Wednesday 5 December

Morning Session 08:30 - 12:00

08:30 Session 5: Mainstreaming the outcomes of the technical process into the political process towards the formulation of a global Water Goal

(Chair: Barbara Evans)

08:30 Opening by the Chair
Recapitulation day 2.

Guy Hutton, WHO/UNICEF JMP

08:45 Recapitulation of the political processes on formulating the post-2015 development agenda led by the UN

Nicole Igloi, UNDP

09:00 The Thematic Consultation on Water

Dick van Ginhoven, Netherlands
Cecilia Scharp, UNICEF

09:15 Arguments to prioritise a WASH target under the post-2015 development agenda

The case for a WASH target

Three, five-minute statements:

- The case for health and human development - Sanjay Wijesekera
- The economic investment case – Jae So
- The Human Rights perspective – Catarina de Albuquerque

09:35 Panel discussion: Effective liaison with the political process to promote the inclusion of a global WASH goal with corresponding targets and indicators for the post-2015 development agenda.

Panel Members: Salisa Abdulmumin (AMCOW), Ulla Hakanen (Finland), Csaba Körösi, (Hungary), Gavin Neath (Unilever), Sonia Tato-Serrano (EU), Chris Williams (WSSCC)

- How to keep WASH on the political development agenda?
- Practical suggestions for reaching out to political actors and processes

Q&A and discussion

Facilitated by: Margaret Catley-Carlson

10:30 – 11:00 Refreshments

Session 6: Wrapup, conclusions and recommendations

(Chaired by Barbara Evans, United Kingdom)

11:00 Wrap up: the elements of a roadmap or action plan to follow on from this consultation

Guy Hutton

Q&A and discussion

Facilitated by: Margaret Catley-Carlson

11:45 Conclusions and recommendations

Margaret Catley-Carlson

Final observations from WHO and UNICEF

12:10 Closing statements

by Yoka Brandt, Deputy Executive Director of UNICEF

by H.E. Liliane Ploumen, Minister of Foreign Trade and Development Cooperation

12:25 Closure of the Consultation